Countdown to Noon

Many of us have watched the ball drop at midnight to ring in the New Year. But have you tried “Countdown to Noon?” It was all the rage on December 31 at Our Lady of Peace. The celebration had all the jubilation and fun of a traditional New Year’s Eve bash but without the wait. We toasted to 2025 and John Horan led us as we sang “Auld Lang Syne.” Plus, our lunch of prime rib, lobster, and shrimp sauté was delicious!

Fay Garrison's headband says it all: "Happy New Year!"

It's the No, No Holidays!

Catering Manager Rachel Mayo and Harold Hopkins

Our Christmas calendar was packed full of seasonal celebrations for residents, families, and our team.

From the official lighting of our tree and holiday hymns to hot chocolate and a visit from Santa, there was always something to look forward to. Our Christmas program was especially memorable and included poems, songs, and stories told by residents and staff. We couldn't have done it without the extra effort of our stellar Life Enrichment Team—their hard work and creativity are unmatched!

A final wave from Alex on his last day.

Alex Has Left the Building

The talented Alex Montes de Oca has retired from Our Lady of Peace after 17 years of dedicated service. Alex has been a friend to countless residents and families and a respected leader to our dining team. A golf-themed farewell party was held to honor his hard work and we wish him the best in his next chapter of life!

Hole in Fun!

Inclement weather? Snow problem! Even if the ground is covered, we still have lots to keep us active and entertained, like a rousing game of cornhole in the hall. Whether you're watching or playing, it's always a blast!
